

WOMEN
OF THE RANCHO
AT ALISAL RANCH

Women of the Rancho Fall Packing List

- Riding Gloves.
- Jeans or traditional riding pants.
- Pull on boots with a hard heel. If you need to shop, try Boot Barn or go online and look at Ariat, Old West, Tony Lama as possibilities.
- Lightweight layers that include long-sleeved shirts, vest or light jacket for evenings.
- Helmets – if you have your own, you may bring it or you may wear one of ours. We have a range of sizes.
- Chaps or half chaps are optional.
- Swimsuits for the pool and hot tub.
- Sports bra for riding.
- Comfortable clothes and footwear for hiking or yoga.
- Dinner Attire for Ladies. There is no dress code for the dining room, but dinner attire has been described as Ranch Cocktail Attire or Western Chic–women have been seen wearing ranch/ western skirts and dresses or jeans with dressy western tops/ jackets. You can have fun with this if you like. We are planning a couple of dinner group photos for us.

Average October weather during daytime is 71 to 75 and lows at night are 51 to 59 degrees. This is the sweet spot for visiting before the winter chill sets in.
